The European Journal of Applied Linguistics and TEFL (EJALTEFL) is a refereed academic publication which aims to disseminate information, knowledge and expertise in the broad area of applied linguistics.

Volume 8 Number 1 is a special issue consisting of ten articles focusing on the theme of Current Perspectives on Teaching English to Refugee-background Students. Topics include: reading pedagogy for young adults - multiple literacies - digital storytelling - encountering and accommodating diversity - assessing linguistic and cultural resources - social positioning and intercontextuality - understanding indigenous education practices.

EJALTEFL provides a valuable source of reference for applied linguists, teacher trainers, materials developers and practitioners in the field of EFL/ESL. It offers readers a deeper insight into current issues, thereby broadening their knowledge and promoting professional development.

Available from booksellers or by subscription (two issues per year).
